SPECIAL TOWN MEETING
Held August 17, 1991 at 1:00 PM

To vote to cure and legalize Article 20 of the March 12, 1991 warrant. This article was worded incorrectly and voted on by a show of hands where it should have been voted on by ballot.

The Article 20 now reads:

SHALL WE ADOPT the provisions of RSA 72 43-f for the adjusted elderly exemptions from property tax. These statutes provide for the following exemptions, based on assessed value, for qualified taxpayers: for a person 65 years of age up to 75 years, $10,000; for a person 75 years of age up to 80 years, $15,000; for a person 80 years of age or older, $20,000. To qualify, the person must have been a New Hampshire resident for at least five (5) years; own the real estate individually or jointly, or if the real estate is owned by his spouse, they must have been married for at least five (5) years. In addition, the taxpayer must have a net income of less than $10,000, or if married, a combined net income of less than $12,000, and own net assets of $30,000 or less, excluding the value of the person's residence.

This Special Meeting was called to order at 1:00 PM on August the 17th, 1991 by John Calhoun, who acted as Moderator in the absence of our elected Town Moderator, Ernest Peter.

Article 1: To see if the Town will vote to cure and legalize, as authorized by RSA 31:5-b, the procedurally defective action taken under Article 20 at the 1991 annual town meeting. This action under Article 20 was procedurally defective because of improper wording and vote since it did not meet the requirement of RSA 72:43-e regarding the adoption of the adjusted elderly exemption.

Article 1 was read by the moderator, moved to the floor by Mr. Hasbrouck and seconded by Ralph Finch. Article 1 was voted on by written ballot, cast and was approved unanimously.

Respectfully submitted,

LIBRARIAN'S REPORT
1 9 9 1

The circulation figure for 1991 reached 4,048. Of this total, 1,961 were children's books, 1450 were adult books, 509 were magazines, and 128 were young adult books.

The library continues to rent books monthly from the McNaughton Book Service, allowing us to receive current and best-seller books. The library also subscribes to twenty-five magazines, covering the subjects of crafts, quilting, gardening, health, sports, wildlife, country living, news and current events.

We are continuing to increase and upgrade our children's picture book section. Approximately seventy-five books were added to the children's shelves this year.

The weekly story hour for pre-school children is held on Wednesdays at 10 00 a.m. with Judy Malott.

The library is also available for community meetings which should be scheduled with the librarian in order to avoid conflicts.

Home Health Care and Community Services provide the area residents with blood pressure and flu vaccine clinics four times per year. This year, visits will be held February 5, May 6, September 2, and November 4 from 2:00 to 3:00 p.m. at the library.

Twenty-four children took part in our summer reading program entitled "Some Enchanted Reading". A total of 129 books were read by these children.

In July, the library and Recreation Committee sponsored the "Little Red Wagon", a puppeteer group from UNH. Children, parents, and grandparents alike enjoyed the performance.

Much appreciation is again due to Lois Hastings, Ruth Maine, and Judy Malott for their volunteer services at the library. Many thanks also go to all who contributed books to the library in the past year.

Gilsum village history maps, mine maps, Gilsum postcards, Gilsum cookbooks, and mine and mineral books continue to be offered for purchase at the Library. Photocopying service is also available.

Library hours are: Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday - 1:30 - 3:30 p.m.
Tuesday, Wednesday - 6:00 - 8:00 p.m.
Saturday - 10:00 - 12:00 Noon

ANNUAL REPORT
For Year Ending 31 December 1991

The Gilsum Planning Board held eleven regularly scheduled monthly meetings during the year. No regular meeting was held in October, so that members could have the opportunity to attend the New Hampshire law lecture series.

Michelle Morrison was elected chairman and Dwane Ballou was elected vice-chairman.

Board members also participated in three special meetings, including joint meetings with the Board of Selectmen, the Zoning Board of Adjustment, and the Conservation Committee.

There were five public hearings relating to two subdivision applications; changes to town zoning ordinances; Site Plan Reviews of Country Acres and U.S. Cellular Corp.; and one boundary line adjustment.

Board members attended seminars on the New Hampshire wetlands evaluation method.

During the year, the board received reports for current gravel pit operations within the town.

Respectfully submitted,

Michael Klein
Secretary
Gilsum Planning Board
